Jubilee Year 2025 in Review by Deacon Ryan Budd

Last Sunday, Deacon Budd and Mr. Caleb joined Mr. John Paul and the other seminarians for the Mass for the close of the Jubilee Year of Hope at the Basilica of St. Mary of the Assumption in Marietta. So much has happened in this grace-filled year! We thought it was worth pondering the many things that have taken place.

- January: We had an awesome turnout to our Parish Feast Day celebration at the St. Benedict School gym, and Sts. Peter and Paul Social Hall, despite terrible weather. Also, Mr. John Paul debuted the new Parish Logo, and published a fantastic description of all its profound symbolism.
- February: Our parish had our nine-day Parish Mission. Eucharistic Adoration was available for 12 hours a day for nine days, with two conferences each day, one at noon and another at 6pm. Lots of people attended, and many people said they felt a new era at the parish had begun.
- March: Thanks to lots of hard work and volunteer hours, our School Auction broke records, raising around $55,000.00 to support our school.
- April: Many parishioners made a pilgrimage to attend the Chrism Mass at the Basilica of St. Mary of the Assumption in Marietta. Father Ginnetti hosted lunch with the winners of the Vocations Essay Contest. At the Easter Vigil, our parish also welcomed a dozen new Catholics into the Church, the largest class in decades.
- May: Pope Leo XIV was elected Sovereign Pontiff and began his ministry in Rome. Closer to home, Mr. John Paul professed candidacy, becoming an official, recognized candidate for Ordination in our diocese. Many parishioners made a pilgrimage to Steubenville to attend the Mass. Our parish also began our Hallow Parish Partnership.
- June: The Seminarian Jubilee Tour passed through our parish, with a holy hour, a talk by Mr. William Gugala, the Diocese's newest seminarian, and a highly-attended reception. A few days later, Deacon Budd was ordained in Steubenville, and many parishioners attended the Mass in Steubenville. Sts. Peter and Paul also celebrated their patronal feast day with a massive turnout. Our Parish was consecrated to the Immaculate Heart of Mary on her feast day.
- July: Mr. John Paul led a group of high-schoolers to the Steubenville Conference at Franciscan University. We also hired our new principal, Mrs. Tricia Luthman, who got right to work helping set our parish school on a sustainable path to keeping Catholic education strong here in Guernsey County. We also began renovations to install heating and air conditioning in the front part of St. Benedict Church, assisted by generous donors.
- August: Mr. John Paul took leave of us to return to seminary studies, and also debuted our new parish Web site, colcatholic.org, where the Bulletins and monthly calendars can be viewed and forms can now be filled out online.
- September: We had our Hallow Parish Mission with Rob Montepare, including three talks and social receptions. We also celebrated the hugely successful School Annual Appeal with a reception where Appeal donors got to meet and speak with Mrs. Luthman.
- November: We had record turnout at the All Saints Day party, which featured a massive bonfire and two pinatas made by our parish high school youth group, "Friends of God."
- December: We spent the month preparing for Christmas and the light that Christ brings to us all.
